DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-21, drawn to Combination (Support System).

Group II, claim(s) 22-32, drawn to Sub-Combination (Support Element).

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Bhat (US 5,226,383) teaches an apparatus comprising: a fixed base element 10 having a substantially flat surface in which a seat 14 with a substantially flat bottom is formed, and a movable support element 12 having a substantially disc-shaped form, being housed inside the seat, being able to rotate about the axis of the seat and having a substantially flat upper side provided with at least one cavity 18 for a substrate or wafer 16 and a substantially flat bottom side; wherein the base comprises one or more passages 24, 26 for one or more gas flows, in which said passages emerge inside the seat in such a way as to lift and rotate the support element (e.g. Fig. 1, 2 and col.2, line 45 to col. 3, line 20). The subject matter taught by Bhat fully encompasses the technical feature which the combination and the sub-combination have in common viz, a support element having a substantially disc-shaped form with a substantially flat upper side provided with at least one cavity for a substrate or wafer and with a substantially flat bottom side. Thus the common technical features of the combination and the sub-combination do not make a contribution over prior art (i.e. they are not to be considered special technical features). Further, the combination (support system) does not require the special technical feature of the sub-combination viz, the bottom side of the support element is provided with depressed areas shaped to receive the thrust of gas flows, and thus the combination and the sub-combination do not have a special technical feature in common.

A telephone call was made to James Haller on 6/30/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
